

Taylor Hall is the Chief of Staff at Crossroads Community Services. She is a vision-to-reality translator by way of innovative, strategic execution. Taylor attained a bachelor's degree in leadership and a master's degree in public administration, with a concentration in nonprofit management, from Texas A&M University. Since graduating, she has devoted the last eight years to working in the nonprofit sector. Taylor's experience includes marketing, strategic management, program development, and organizational change. She enjoys volunteering, shopping, and trying new eating establishments. Currently, Taylor serves on the Board of Directors for Kuluntu Bakery